WET DEMANDS ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE DATA

Charges Dry Organization With Violation Of Federal Law

BY JAMES W. DOUTHAT
Associated Press Staff Writer
Washington, April 15—(AP)—Renewing his attack against dry organizations, Representative Tinkham, Republican, Massachusetts, today charged before the Senate Lobby committee that the Anti-Saloon League had "flagrantly and audaciously" violated the federal corrupt practices act and that the Southern Methodist Board of Temperance and Social Service had "engaged in offensive and coercive lobbying activities."

Tinkham, a wet, demanded that these organizations along with Bishop James Cannon, Jr., chairman of the Methodist Board, be investigated by the Lobby committee. His testimony was completed today.

Previously, Tinkham had requested an investigation of the Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals of the Northern Methodist Church and the Federal Council of Churches.

All of the organizations will be given an opportunity to reply to Tinkham.

The committee tomorrow will question Henry H. Curran, President of the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment.

Made "Nominal Returns"
Saying the League had collected and expended $67,563.313 from 1893 to 1926 inclusive, Tinkham testified that only "nominal returns" had been made to the Clerk of the House of Representatives of the sums used for "political purposes."

Tinkham demanded that the committee obtain the names of at least the larger contributors. He said these had never been made public.

Cannon has informed the committee he would be glad to appear and furnish any information desired.

The witness presented the committee with a table intended to show the money collected and expended by the national Anti-Saloon League and 37 state leagues from 1920 to 1925 inclusive.

Total receipts were given as $13,116,435 and expenditures as $13,065,513. The estimated figure for 1926 disbursements was $2,000,000.

Tinkham charged that until 1920 the league made "no returns whatever" under the federal corrupt practices act, which was passed in 1912.

"The League and its state subsidiaries are a political committee under the wording of the federal corrupt practices act," he continued, "and its activities come within the terms of the federal corrupt practices act."

"It maintains a political organization in every state of the union and in some states, New York and Illinois, notably, it maintains expensive and extensive headquarters."

Senator Robinson, Republican, Indiana, asked Tinkham if he would object to the League using money to educate people to enforce the law.

"I am for enforcement of the law," the witness replied. "I think the Anti-Saloon League should obey the corrupt practices act."

Tinkham referred to McBride as the "head lobbyist" of the organization.

No More $2.50 Gold Pieces To Be Coined

Washington, April 15—(AP)—Anyone with a particular fondness for $2.50 gold pieces had better start gathering them right now. President Hoover has signed a bill which relieves the Treasury of the duty of coining any more of them. The Treasury asked for the law some time ago after deciding that the coins were of little use except as expensive gifts.

CONTINUE SEARCH FOR TWO MISSING AVIATORS TODAY

No Trace Of Men Found Around Chicago Or In New York

Chicago, April 15—(UP)—A reward of $500 acted as a stimulus today in the search for Ralph Fisher Skelton, Chicago artist and sportsman, who has been missing since Thursday when he hopped off at Ann Arbor, Mich., for Chicago.

A troop of Boy Scouts, 5,000 strong, was mobilized to search the sand dunes and swamps around Chesterton Ind., where 11-year-old John Murray reported seeing a plane in distress. The territory was scouted by planes late yesterday but no trace of the missing aviator was found.

Miss Betty Cook, friend of Skelton who was to have dined with the artist on his expected arrival here Thursday night, took to the air twice yesterday and retraced the courses from Lake Michigan to Kalamazoo. Miss Cook, who was an art pupil of Skelton, announced that she would not fly out again in search of him unless some definite information regarding his whereabouts is received.

The reward was offered by friends of Skelton yesterday after pilots who have aided in the search expressed their belief that Skelton's plane had been lapped up by the waves of Lake Michigan. They said further search was futile.

N. Y. STUDENT LOST

New York, April 15—(UP)—An extensive search for Ralph White, 32-year-old student flier, continued over land and sea today, but only slight hope remained that he would be found alive and safe.

It was feared that the missing flier, lost in a dense fog, had been forced down on the Atlantic and vanished without a trace.

White took off from Curtiss Field late Sunday with fuel enough for three hours flight.

Rewards totalling $1,000 have been offered for information leading to the discovery of the ship or body.

Pioneer Doctor Of Frontier Days Dead

Grand Forks, N. D., Apr. 15—(UP)—Dr. Henry M. Wheeler today had joined those frontiersmen who have "gone west" forever.

The doctor, who gained fame when he shot a member of the Younger-James gang which attempted to hold up and rob the First National Bank of Northfield, Minn., Sept. 7, 1876 died peacefully from heart disease yesterday.

The doctor's funeral was set for today while hundreds of representatives of the "new west," which he saw develop, will pay tribute to one of the picturesque figures of the earlier days.

Dixon—Dr. Wheeler was very fond of shooting and was a hunter of considerable repute for many years and was very well known to many Dixonites. Prior to 1900 he was a hunting companion of the late Blinn Smith, William J. McAlpine, James N. Sterling, A. C. Warner and of Charles F. Duis and Attorney Henry C. Warner of this city. For a long time he was Chief Surgeon for the Great Northern Railroad.

HEAD OF WALTON LEAGUE WILL BE AT MEETING HERE

Conference And Banquet For Waltonians Of Section Thursday

Dr. P. R. Blodgett, president of the national organization of the Izaak Walton League of America will be in Dixon Thursday accompanied by several other officers and those prominent in the league, to address a district meeting of northern Illinois chapters in the city hall at 2:30 in the afternoon. President Louis Knick and Secretary Vernon Schrock of the Dixon Chapter are in charge of the meeting and have arranged for a dinner to be served at the Elks club in the evening at which the distinguished visitors will be guests.

Delegations from many of the northern Illinois chapters will come to Dixon to attend this meeting and to complete plans for the furthering of the work of the organization in this locality for the ensuing year. Officers of the local clubs are anxious to have a good attendance both at the meeting in the afternoon and at the dinner in the evening. Tickets for the dinner may be obtained by application to either President Knick or Secretary Vernon Schrock. All who are interested in the conservation of fish and game or the propagation of these as well as the preservation of the natural beauties of Dixon and vicinity for the coming generations, are requested to attend the meeting and the banquet and to participate in the discussions and plans for the future activities of the Dixon Chapter and the other Izaak Walton league clubs of northern Illinois.

Seek Change In Law
At the meeting the Dixon Chapter will launch a movement to secure a change in the fishing law. The Dixon Waltonians will seek to make pole and line fishing legal in the taking of all kinds of fish from the streams during the fishing season.

At present, the state fishing laws provide a closed season on black bass from February 23 to June 15 and a closed season also applies to the taking of pike from the waters. The stand taken by the members of the Dixon Chapter, is that the taking of these game fish from the waters by means of pole and line will not serve to deplete the waters of these fish and that the funds secured by the state from the sale of fishing licenses is sufficient to provide for the stocking of the streams from the several hatcheries throughout Illinois. Sponsors of the proposed change in the state fishing laws also maintain that either black bass or pike, caught on a hook during the closed season and then released, are damaged and short lived.

B. Frank Hoover Of Gap Grove Is Dead

B. Frank Hoover passed away at his home in Gap Grove Monday afternoon at 1:10 o'clock. He was born June 21, 1859 at Strasburg, Lancaster county, Pa. Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon with a brief service at the home at 2 o'clock and at 2:30 from the Prairieville church with interment in the Prairieville cemetery.

BOLT KILLS DRIVER

Bluffs, Ill., April 15—(UP)—Lightning claimed its first victim in central Illinois this season, near here today when Leonard Ruhe, 23, was instantly killed. Ruhe was struck by a bolt of lightning while hauling a load of fodder for his stock. His sister, Pauline, 19, who was riding with him on the wagon was uninjured.

JILTED BY A FORMER DEKALB SALVATION ARMY GIRL, MAN TRIED TO SUICIDE THIS MORN

Chicago, April 15—(UP)—James Carr, who said he is a professional baseball player, was taken to St. Luke's hospital today suffering from poison he drank in an attempt to commit suicide in a doctor's office here.

Carr threatened to jump from a hospital window and was strapped to the bed. He said he tried to end his life "because of a girl" but did not go into details.

A telegram dated Feb. 24 from DeKalb, Ill., and signed "Lottie" was found in his pocket.

The girl Carr claimed jilted him, making his life no longer worth while, he said, was a Salvation Army lassie. He would not say whether she was the DeKalb girl whose message was found in his pocket.

"The Salvation Army girl I'm in love with has thrown me over and I can't bear to go on without her," he asserted when he was questioned at the hospital, where physicians said he probably will recover despite the seriousness of his condition.

He declined to name the girl and gave very little information about himself, other than that he was 24 years old and a brush salesman.

He said that he formerly had been a professional ball player.

(Telegraph Special Service)
DeKalb, Ill., April 15—James Carr, who is reported to have taken poison in Chicago today in an attempt to commit suicide, is not known here, but a Salvation Army girl, Lottie Sapp, who was connected with the Army here for a time, but who left some time ago, is thought to be the girl from whom Carr received a telegram in February.

PROGRESS MADE IN PROBING OF CAPITAL CRIME

Navy Dept. Worker Assaulted Prior To Being Murdered

Washington, April 15—(UP)—Search for the murderer of Mary Baker, pretty Navy Department clerk, whose body was discovered under a culvert adjoining Arlington National Cemetery Saturday, was narrowed today to two men, one a Washingtonian.

This announcement was made by police after inspection of letters and photographs found in the dead girl's desk at the Navy Department. The letters, police said, were of an amorous nature and were signed "Jimmy." Among the photographs was one of a man whose identity could not be established by Miss Baker's friends.

Commonwealth Attorney William C. Glöck of Arlington county said he was going to request two young women friends of the dead girl whom he believes have concealed valuable evidence in previous testimony.

With Man Four Hours
Miss Baker was murdered last Friday night after she had spent four hours—from about 6:30 P. M. to 10:30 P. M.—riding around and near the city and parking with some man whom she evidently knew well, according to the information gathered by detectives.

Police say the girl was assaulted and then shot three times. They believe the assault occurred near Rosslyn, Va., across the Potomac river from here. Residents of that place report they heard the girl's cries and later as the car started off at a rapid pace, they heard shots. Her companion threw her body under a culvert near the Arlington cemetery and then abandoned her car a half mile away.

Whether by intent or not, Miss Baker's murderer selected for his crime the one spot near Washington which does not enjoy police protection. It is on Federal territory and hence is not under the jurisdiction of Virginia police.

PAVING SCANDAL IN IOWA HINTED IN DAMAGE SUIT

"Monster Combine" Is Charged By Larkin Construction Co.

Des Moines, Ia., April 15—(AP)—A million and a half dollar damage suit, brought by the Larkin Construction Company of Des Moines against what it termed a "monster combine" for monopolizing Iowa's state paving program, was on file today.

Ten construction companies; the Southern Surety Company of New York; the Bureau of Contract Information in Washington and five individuals were made defendants. The bill set out that the Larkin Company last December was invited but refused, to enter into agreement with the ten defendant companies to destroy free competition.

Last March the company obtained a state paving award but immediately after, the petition related, the defendants "caused to be circulated" through the Bureau of Contract Information "false representations as to the honesty, integrity and financial responsibility of the plaintiff."

This information, the plaintiff avers, was used to prevent the Larkin Co. from obtaining contract bonds, necessary before proceeding with the improvements.

The bill charged the "combine" with practically destroying the plaintiff's business, and actual damages of $500,000 and exemplary damages of $950,000 are asked.

DENTISTS MUST PAY

Springfield, Ill., April 15—(UP)—Two Chicago dentists must pay Miss Lillian Bollenbach, Chicago, $8,000 for a broken tooth which she swallowed and caused injury to her lungs, the Supreme Court ruled here today.

The court denied the two dentists—Dr. Jacob Bloementhal and Edgar E. Bennecke—a writ of certiorari in their appeal from a Chicago court's decision which held that Miss Bollenbach was entitled to that amount of damages through alleged negligence on the dentists' part.

One of the dentists, Miss Bollenbach claimed, broke the tooth when he pulled it and failed to remove all the broken parts from her mouth.

Later, she said, she swallowed one of the parts and lung trouble developed.

On the South Sea Islands there lives the largest shellfish in the world. Its shell is frequently more than a foot in diameter and when opened, will snap shut on the foot of a human, holding fast until it is pried apart with considerable force.

Hempleman of Juneau County, Wisconsin, examining 12 gauge gun with which it is believed District Attorney Clinton G. Price, (lower right) 48, was shot down in his home at Mauston, Wis., Lyall Wright, 30, (lower left), shell-shocked war veteran and former "boy sheriff" of Juneau County is held by authorities in connection with the assassination. Price, self-styled foe of bootleggers who had promised a statement "which would blow the lid off in Juneau County," was shot down on the rear porch of his Mauston home. The shotgun was found in the river directly across from the rear of the Price residence.

Some Oddities In Wire News Today From Various Parts

TOUGH ON BRUNETTES

Denver, Colo., April 15—(UP)—Long faces began to appear in the ranks of the male members of the Yvvh cult here today.

Emanuel Yvvh, leader of the religious group, had told his followers that the Lord was going to destroy all the women in the world—except 14,000 blondes.

Emanuel said that the women were to be destroyed "because of their sins." He did not place a definite time for the catastrophe to occur.

CENSUS BOOK LOST

Madison, Conn., April 15—The taking of Madison's farm census is not a task to be relished, Miss Gertrude Bassett, enumerator, said today.

Calling at the farm of Frank Hald, she left her data book on the running board of her automobile and approached Hald.

"How many goats have you?" she asked.

"That's the only one," replied Hald, pointing to a bewhiskered animal standing beside the enumerator's automobile with a scrap of paper projecting from his jaws.

The census book had disappeared.

Hart made known his stand late yesterday when he issued papers legalizing a warrantless raid made Saturday on tin shop. Two men arrested at the place have been held in bond for possessing liquor and maintaining a nuisance.

"If we can't get a warrant for such business places we will enter anyhow," said Sgt. O. J. Letterman of the raiding squad after Hart's position was made clear.

The first definite clue to White's fate came last night from Chauncey M. Augustine, a Scoutmaster of Patchogue, L. I. He said he saw a plane believed to be White's try for a landing on Baker Field, near Patchogue, about 5:30 Sunday.
A moment later, he said, the pilot evidently decided the field was too small and flew on toward the Long Island shore line.

White Stenographer
Weds Negro Porter

Lancaster, Pa., April 15—(UP)—William C. Temple, 25, Negro porter, and Miss Margaret H. Drake, 24, white stenographer, both of Harrisburg, Pa., were married here today by the Rev. Maris F. Matthews, pastor of the Ebenezer Baptist church. The couple secured a marriage license at the court house yesterday.
This was the third case of interracial marriage here in the last eight years.

Harrisburg, Pa., April 15—(UP)—Willard Temple, Negro, who married Miss Margaret Drake, young white girl, at Lancaster today was arrested here last January for drawing a knife on a taxicab driver. He was fined $50 and because he refused to pay he was given a two-months sentence in the county jail, but later was released when he paid part of the fine.

Miss Drake formerly was an employee of the State Health Department. She appeared as a character witness for Temple in his January trial, and later was released from the state's employ.
Last week Temple, who is a porter in a barber shop, was arrested and forfeited $25 deposit for repairing the young woman's automobile in front of his home here, after police had warned him against making repairs on the street.

CHURCHES

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.
"Dixon for Christ," is the campaign slogan of the Wheaton College Gospel Group, led by Prof. and Mrs. S. J. Bale, now holding services in this city.

Last night a large audience in the Congregational church listened to two stirring addresses. Mrs. Bale, speaking after years of experience, introduced her audience to dispensational truth. "Where Cain Got His Wife," "Did Noah Really Build the Ark?" and other puzzling questions were ably discussed. Prof. Bale, talking as his text Hebrews 11:8, talked forcibly on the separated Christian life.

Tonight Mrs. Bale will give a second talk from the dispensational chart, "Are We Building Another Tower of Babel?" Prof. Bale will conclude his remarkable testimony, "Saved When Up and Out." Vocal and instrumental numbers by the young people and live gospel singing will complete the evening.

Meetings will be held each night this week, including Sunday at 7:30. In the Congregational church, "Who is Mussolini?" "God's Red Flag," "Signs of the Times" and other live themes are promised.

Last Saturday

BY ROBERT LESAGE
Last Saturday afternoon forty delegates from Dixon High School and various other schools in this vicinity were the guests of the DeKalb High School publication, "The Barb." At this conference a round table discussion took place on various types of writing as well as business management of high school publications.

A luncheon was later served in the private dining room of the Innovation, at which time the delegates were entertained by two very interesting speakers, Mr. Engleman and Miss Florence Otis. Mr. Engleman is from Aurora while Miss Otis is director of the school paper of Prospect Township High School, Maywood. Both were able to give the youthful journalists and business managers many useful hints.

Delegates From Dixon
Dixon High School has been thinking very seriously of starting a school paper, which is to be edited once a week at a reasonable price. The Commercial Club of Dixon High School have brought to press a paper, "The Purple and White Banner," a few times and pleased with its success and the school spirit aroused more papers are wanted for the future. To further these ends the following students were sent to represent Dixon: Robert Kennedy, the newly elected business manager of the Dixonian for 1931; Eleanor Bartholomew, Thelma Salesbury and Marion Meyers. These students were supervised by Miss Dorothy Armstrong and Miss Olga Enoeth of the Dixon high school faculty.

HOME REMEDIES
GAVE NO RELIEF

Kansas Postmaster Had Bad Case of Piles for Eight Years.

Every reader of this paper who is afflicted with Piles or any other rectal trouble will be glad to learn how J. D. Eisenhower, Postmaster at Navarre, Kansas, was relieved after years of suffering.

Mr. Eisenhower says:
"I had been afflicted with Piles and other rectal complications for eight years. I tried all manner of home remedies, salves and suppositories and all I ever got was a little temporary relief. I went to several local physicians with no success. Then I was urged to go to a real specialist, Dr. McCleary, at Excelsior Springs, Mo. I did, and I have him to thank for my present good health and happiness. The results were marvelous and I urge everyone who suffers as I did to write Dr. McCleary at once."

If you or any of your friends are interested in knowing more about the McCleary treatments, write Dr. McCleary, E502 Elms Blvd., Excelsior Springs, Mo., today. Ask for his book, "Piles Treated Without Surgery," and reference list, which will be sent to you free and without obligation of any kind. Over 200,000 men and women from all parts of the United States and Canada have been treated by Dr. McCleary and his associates.—Adv.

MARBLIES
YOU may show me rows of crocuses and daffodils squills.
You may point out all the promise in the sound of running rills.
You may bid me hear the bluebird and the earliest robin's trills.
But I never get the genuine, authentic springtime thrills
Till the little boys play marbles in the street.

Yes, the hurdy-gurdy cheers me, and I throw my window high
When the bright balloon and windmill man comes gayly whistling by.
And I hail the clouds of April as they scud across the sky.
But I never get the longing to spread out my wings and fly
Till the little boys play marbles in the street.

Colleen Moore, John McCormick Divorce

Los Angeles, April 15—(AP)—Colleen Moore, film favorite, and her producer-husband, John McCormick have reached the parting of the ways.

The oft-rumored rift in their domestic life was climaxed yesterday by the filing of a divorce action by Miss Moore, in which mental cruelty was made the basis of her complaint.

Miss Moore alleged, among other things, that on December 20, 1929, when she had just returned from a hospital where she underwent an appendicitis operation, her husband, in the presence of friends, ordered her from their Bel-Air home. Previously on September 21, he invited guests to their home for dinner, she charged, but failed to attend the meal herself, nor did he give any reason for his absence.

Miss Moore's complaint does not ask for financial settlement, but stated that a property settlement had been arranged. McCormick has indicated he will not contest the suit. They were married August 18, 1923.

Thursday Reading Circle Meeting

The Thursday Reading Circle met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. V. Smith. The paper of the afternoon on "Easter Customs in Foreign Lands" was read by Mrs. Cleo Bunnell. Easter music was furnished by Mrs. Nate Morrill.

After the program a delicious luncheon was served by the hostess.

COLOR AND NOTCHES FEATURE SCARVES

PARIS—(AP)—Among new scarves is one with irregularly slashed and notched edges. They give it a rough-neck air which makes it particularly effective with tween costumes.

Bright green and cardinal red are the chic colors for sport scarves this season. Small scarves, double thickness of crepe de chine or marocain are smarter than big ones.

Even wool scarves are small, eight inches wide and long enough to twist once around the throat with 12 to eighteen inches left over at the ends.

Mrs. Hoover Suffers Slight Indisposition

Washington, April 15—(AP)—Mrs. Hoover is suffering from a slight cold, but her indisposition is described as not of a serious nature and her prompt recovery is expected. The ailment, however, is keeping her indoors and prevented her from attending the meeting last night of the Daughters of the American Revolution, at which Mr. Hoover delivered an address. Likewise, she was unable to accompany the President to the opening baseball game of the season in the afternoon. She was present at the corresponding occasion last year.

Senate Floor Invaded By Girl Secretaries

Washington—(AP)—Girl clerks and stenographers have broken into the sacred precincts of the senate floor.

For the first time in history female members of the senators' official families have appeared on the floor to supply ammunition for fervent speeches.

Doris Swayze, secretary to Senator Frederick Steiwer of Oregon, supplied him with facts about lumber during one of his recent speeches demanding a duty on the product.

Ruth Elder, 23, stenographer in the office of Senator Norris of Nebraska, came warily upon the senate floor in response to the senator's request for a certain file. She went out again quickly. But Miss Swayze stood her ground, surrounded by a formidable stack of papers, books and documents relating to the lumber industry.

Whenever Senator Steiwer wanted some of them for reference a page darted back to the girl secretary. Miss Swayze is an Oregon girl and is thoroughly familiar with the lumber industry.

ESCAPING CONTENTMENT.

It is only in the spring of the year that it is possible to look with any favor upon the practice of getting up early in the morning.

At all other seasons the thought of staying overlong in bed is a thought to delight the soul. But in April things are a bit different. There is a magic in the thin sunlight, and the earlier in the day you tackle it the more magical it becomes. It is actually possible to get out of bed ahead of time, voluntarily.

Of course, it is quite evident that nature is in a year-long conspiracy to fool us. Still, the process isn't unpleasant. And in April—due perhaps, to the long disillusionment of winter—most of us are ready, even eager, to be fooled.

So it is that there is a good deal to be gained by getting up early on an April morning. The sunlight, slanting down the street and across the yards, transforms everything it touches. It strikes a row of perfectly ordinary houses and turns them into mystic dwellings like those gleaming towers and battlements that one sees, in dreams, on distant and unattainable shores. You can't recognize your own street. It becomes exciting, haunted, miraculous. During the few moments of dawn it is a place where anything could happen.

In fact, an April sunrise gives you the impression that the world has just been created. Any kind of a fresh start can be made. You have just arrived. There are no mistakes to undo. Everything is waiting for you. You can make the world into precisely the delightful, joyous place you have always dreamed of.

This, of course, is a strong delusion. It passes when the dawn passes, and long before noon the cares of every day have driven it far out of our minds. But it is worth getting, just the same.

For we live, after all, by delusions. Thinking of what the world might be, what it ought to be, helps us to endure it as it really is. If it were not for such glimpses of the unattainable as April mornings give us we would speedily forget that we came into this universe trailing clouds of glory. We would be convinced that our go-getters and our hustlers have the last word, and we would forget to be dissatisfied with things as they are.

It is that dissatisfaction that is our salvation. We weren't meant to be contented. Neither happiness nor accomplishment lies that way.

NOT IN THE LEAST SURPRISING.

It is comforting, although not in the least surprising, to read that the United States circuit court of appeals has acquitted Mary Ware Dennett of the charge of sending an obscene book through the mails.

Mrs. Dennett, you doubtless remember, wrote a pamphlet on sex instruction for her children some years ago. After doctors, ministers and church organizations had praised it, she had it printed and distributed it broadcast.

She was arrested and a New York judge fined her $300 and gave her a year in jail.

The idiocy of the whole proceeding was almost too obvious to need comment. To have upheld her conviction and sentence would have been to confirm a grotesque and startling miscarriage of justice. Her final exoneration is nothing but simple justice. The only trouble is that there does not seem to be any way of reaching the busybody who first started proceedings against her.

It is reported that tax collectors in Paris have threatened to strike. Pity the poor Parisiens.

Scientists are now saying that petrol can be made from grass. Judging from some of the greens we have tasted lately, it would seem that spinach is a better source.

It is taken for granted, of course, that the Harvard professors who have just received a gift of 8000 insects to add to their museum will first make sure that Lon Chaney is not in the collection.

There is a rumor abroad that Fannie Ward will get a free camera when George Eastman gives them away soon to every 12-year-old applicant.

College men are now wanted for work in prisons. And some collegians, after listening to certain professors for four years, will think nothing of it.

A 19-year-old California boy confessed robbing a home and burning a barn in the hope he would be sent to prison and given an opportunity to play on the convict nine. The boy seems bound to have his innings.

A composer has written a song for pedestrians. But it will be a long time before composers nowadays can hope to excel Chopin's famous funeral piece.

THE TINYMITES

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

The wooden shoes the Tinies saw of course, filled everyone with awe. "How do they ever make them?" queried Clowdy. "Mercy me! Each one looks very, very neat and they would fit right on my feet. Let's go up to the workers where we all can plainly see."

At one place they all watched them chip wood into shape at quite a clip. At first the shoes were just long blocks and you would never think that into shoes they'd soon be made. Said Clowdy, "Say, aren't you afraid that you will cut yourself?" And then a worker gave one wink.

"Oh, no!" said he. "You see, we know just how each knife and saw should go. We've been hard at this sort of work for years and years and years. It's really all in knowing how. And, if you'll watch, you'll see right now, that we cut wood just like girls cut nice paper dolls with shears."

And he was right. The work was neat. Said Coppy, "Say, you cannot beat the speed in which these shoes are made. They're turned out mighty fast. Some day I'm going to try a pair. I may fall down, but I don't care. They look so strong I'll bet that for a year or so they'd last."

Then Clowdy, with a good-sized pair began to walk and said, "I'm there! Just watch me, all you Tinymites. I'll show you how it's done." The others watched him for a spell and then they heard him loudly yell, "Hey, catch me!" And he took a flop which ended all his fun.

In just a little while their friend the Travel Man said, "This will end our visit here. Come on, let's go. We'll sleep up in some hay. I see a barn right near at hand and I am sure that will be grand." The Tinies climbed into the barn and loudly cried, "Hurray!"

TODAY IS THE ANNIVERSARY

CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS
On April 15, 1861, three days after the Confederate attack on Fort Sumter, President Lincoln issued a call for 75,000 volunteers.

"I appeal," wrote the president in his proclamation, "to all loyal citizens to favor, facilitate and aid this effort to maintain the honor, the integrity and the existence of our national union, and the perpetuity of popular government; and to redress wrongs already long enough endured."

The proclamation was sent the governors of all the states, but in seven, where insurrection prevailed, it was assailed with the bitterest scorn. A typical reply was that of Governor Harris of Tennessee, who wrote: "Tennessee will not furnish a single man for coercion, but 50,000 if necessary for the defense of our rights, or those of our southern brethren."

While the north responded with spirit to the call, popular excitement and enthusiasm in the south is said to have equaled that which marked the early stages of the French revolution, and more than 200,000 Confederate volunteers offered their services to Jefferson Davis.

Daily Health Talk

HALITOSIS

By Sam A. Overstreet, M. D., Louisville, Kentucky.

(This series of articles is prepared under the direction of the Gorgas Memorial Institute, which is organized to perpetuate the life work of the late Major-General Gorgas in preventing unnecessary illness. The headquarters of the Institute are at 1331 G. Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.)

Foul breath is as insidious as it is unpleasant. He who has it is often unaware until told by a good friend. He wonders then how many people have been annoyed during their conversation with him, and at once tries to cover it up.

"Breath Sweeteners" are numerous and well advertised. But one is not justified in relying upon the relief they may afford while he neglects to correct the fundamental cause. These remedies should be used, as temporary expedients, but it is far more important to cure or remove the source of trouble. There are also times during menstruation, following the extraction of teeth, before the mouth is cleansed after rising in the morning, and following the taking of certain food or drinks, that the breath is foul and a simple deodorant mouthwash is advisable.

Frequently however a foul breath is only an index to some disorder of the system which needs adjustment. Many such disorders affect the mouth, teeth, and throat and if the cause is not readily apparent to the layman, professional help should be sought from his dentist or physician. Infection of the gums, pyorrhea, trench mouth, and decayed teeth are all dental conditions which demand care. Infection of the tonsils or throat, ulceration of the mouth or pharynx, and the collection of pus high up in the nose or in the accessory nasal sinuses will require the attention of the physician. Odors ranging from a faintly unpleasant taint to a putrid smell may arise from any disorder of the stomach. This is especially true when cancer invades the esophagus or stomach.

Aside from definite causes which can be found and removed there are

"KONJOLA FIRST REMEDY TO GIVE ME ANY RELIEF"

Stomach Trouble and Constipation Had Defied and Baffled Every Medicine Tried.

MR. CARL ZUSAY.

"For three years I suffered torments from indigestion, and Konjola was the first remedy that gave me any relief," said Mr. Carl Zusay, 216 Grand avenue, Joliet. "Not a thing I ate agreed with me; anything, however light, caused severe pain and discomfort. My system was fairly saturated with poisons due to chronic constipation. I felt tired all the time, and was lacking in vitality and ambition."

"Konjola was strongly recommended to me and I determined to put it to the test. The very first bottle proved that I was on the right track, that I had found a real medicine. Constipation was relieved quickly, and day by day digestion improved. In a month I was able to eat meals that I could not possibly have eaten before. I am gaining in weight and strength, and am feeling better than in years. Do you blame me for praising Konjola?"

Though Konjola works quickly, and many sufferers are great benefitted in a week, a complete treatment of from six to eight bottles are recommended for thorough results.

Konjola is sold in Dixon, Ill., at the FORD HOPKINS DRUG STORE, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this section. —Adv.

Charles Traung, Commissioner with jurisdiction over northern California, announced today that purses of the two fighters had been held up. Traung said he doubted if many mysterious angles surrounding sudden termination of the bout in sixth round when Carnera was behind on points would be cleared until principals in the affair had been interrogated.

Chevalier, a giant Negro who looked small alongside Carnera, had an a nine count but was standing his feet and fighting valiantly when one of his seconds threw a towel in the ring after two minutes and seconds of fighting in the sixth round.

"Chevalier appeared to have something wrong with his eye but I do not know the reason for Chevalier's conduct and throwing the towel into the ring," Traung said.

The Ball and Bottle Test

shows you the way oils differ in "body". The more "body" an oil has, the slower the little ball falls in the tube. You can see this test at any Standard Oil service station. Notice the difference between used Iso-Vis and any other oil drained from the crankcase. Iso-Vis does not thin out or break down in your motor—regardless of miles of running.

THIS simple and graphic test shows clearly that New Iso-Vis does not thin out or "break down" in the crankcase no matter how many miles you drive.

To motorists accustomed to find oil thin and diluted after a few hundred miles of driving, New Iso-Vis brings an entirely new conception of motor oil quality.

It is important to realize that 90 percent of the "thinning out" in your crankcase takes place during the first 200 miles after changing your oil. By overcoming this thinning out Iso-Vis assures you of lubrication not only when your oil is fresh but right up until the time you change.

New Iso-Vis actually is as heavy, after a long period of use, as it was the day you put it in the crankcase.

Remember, too — New Iso-Vis reduces carbon deposit far below most premium priced oils and gives lubrication over a wider range of engine temperatures.

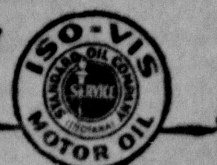

SAVE MONEY on carbon removal. Further reduction of the carbon nuisance is another way in which New Iso-Vis proves a definite economy.

You can get New Iso-Vis from any Standard Oil dealer or service station. Try this improved motor lubricant in your car. Have the crankcase drained and New Iso-Vis put in today.

FEEDING THE DAIRY HERD

Improper feeding of dairy cattle is one of the chief causes of unprofitable dairying. Undoubtedly there are many reasons for the failure of dairymen to employ the best methods of feeding, but two of the chief ones are a lack of proper understanding and knowledge of the subject and the fact that much of the published information has been given in too technical a form to make it readily usable.

A cow may use feed for five different purposes: namely, growth, maintenance, milk production, increase in weight, and production of offspring. Since cows do not mature until they are four or five years of age, generous allowance must be made up to that time for growth requirements. From 35 to 70 percent of the total feed consumed is used simply to maintain the body without gain or loss in weight. The production of milk necessarily requires feed in addition to that utilized for maintenance.

Cows normally increase in weight during the latter part of the lactation period and during the rest period. This increase requires feed in addition to that used for maintenance and milk production. The development of the fetus constitutes a fifth purpose for which a cow requires feed. The amount of feed, however, required for this purpose is relatively small. Liberal feeding, when intelligently done, usually proves more profitable in the long run than scanty feeding. Though other factors than feeding affect the milk production of a herd, there is no doubt but that many dairy herds which are making little or no profit could be placed on a paying basis simply by giving more attention to this one factor—more generous feeding.

The substances found in feeds are grouped into six classes: Proteins, carbohydrates, fats, mineral matter, vitamins and water. Every dairyman should know these classes, should know what part they play in the nourishment of the animal, and what common feeds will best supply them in the most economical and desirable form.

Feeds are roughly divided into two classes, based upon physical characteristics and composition. These are: 1. Concentrates, such as farm grain and mill by-products; 2. Roughages, such as hay, straw, silage, grass, and roots. Feeds of this class are bulky and contain relatively large amounts of fiber and in some cases water.

"Spring pastures, except for fur-feeding too much bulk, are an ideal situation for milk production. One of the most important attributes of the grass, which is supplied by spring pasture is the great palatability. In the winter this quality of palatability may be secured in the ration in several ways: 1. by using only those feeds which have a pleasant odor and flavor. 2. by incorporating a number of different feeds in the grain mixture and by feeding more than one kind of roughage. 3. by using succulent feeds.

DIETED FOR MONTHS
STOMACH TROUBLE
YIELDS TO GLY-CAS

Lady is in Good Health Once More After Short Treatment of Herbal Remedy.

"I have taken all kinds of medicines, but Gly-Cas was the only one to really reach my case," said Mrs. Annie Welliver, 1371 West Main St., Galesburg, Ill.

"For the past two or three years I have suffered from a bad case of catarrh of the stomach and constipation," continued Mrs. Welliver. "After my meals my stomach would bloat, press against my heart and cause me terrible pain. The condition of my stomach was so bad I had to diet for nine months. I also was bothered constantly with constipation and always had to take laxatives. I read of what Gly-Cas was doing for others and decided to give it a trial myself. I had only taken a short treatment of Gly-Cas when it rid me of that dreadful suffering from catarrh of the stomach, now I can eat what I want and it does not bother me at all, all that misery and bloating has left. I am no longer bothered with constipation either and I feel I am in good health once more. Gly-Cas was the only medicine to reach my case and I am glad to recommend it very highly."

"It is said that Gly-Cas is far better than any medicine on the market today for bringing complete relief to the most stubborn cases of rheumatism, neuritis, stomach, liver, kidney, bowel, blood troubles."

Reiterates His Stand In an Address To D. A. R.
Last Evening

Washington, April 15—(AP)—With the World Court question rapidly assuming the proportions of a foremost political issue, special significance was attached today to a renewed and vigorous plea for American adherence voiced by President Hoover.

From the Chief Executive's emphatic espousal of the entry of this country, coming soon after the outburst of opposition which followed the Illinois primaries of a week ago, was drawn the inference that Mr. Hoover is prepared to wage a determined and aggressive fight for American membership in the international tribunal.

The President's appeal was expressed in an address delivered last night before the Daughters of the American Revolution. In addition to his comment upon the court issue, he asserted that American security was fundamentally assured and discussed the results of the London naval conference, reiterating his view that the agreement reached in the British Capital meant the abolishment of international rivalry in the construction of sea armaments.

Asserting that the causes of friction between the nations are ever present throughout the world, Mr. Hoover said that the remedy and the preventive of war lay in the creation of "appropriate agencies for regular methodical disposal and solution of these controversies so as to assure justice and avoid arousing of national emotions."

He went on to tell of the steps that have been taken to provide these means of amicably adjusting international disputes and then said:

"Statesmen over a generation have realized that with this growth of international law and precedent another method can be contributed to the pacific settlement of a vast number of incidental controversies of justiciable character if the world had an international court to which such cases could be referred for adequate hearing and independent decision based upon law and justice."

"Such a court—the World Court—has been established at The Hague with the aid of American jurists. It has been accepted by ninety per cent of the civilized people of the earth. It is established and no other court is practicable. It has demonstrated the highest integrity and capacity, and the continuance of these qualities is assured. It has already settled a great number of controversies. It is only one, but an important one of the six or seven methods of securing pacific settlements, and thus a contribution to the prevention of war."

Favored by Chiefs
"Adherence to that court by the United States has been earnestly recommended by every one of our Presidents and every one of our Secretaries of State living since its inception. No one can challenge the patriotism of these ten men, nor the ripe wisdom which is theirs from having borne the actual burden of responsibility for our foreign relations. They have found no entanglement or limitation of the independence of the United States by safeguard membership in it."

Mr. Hoover is holding ready to submit to the Senate at an appropriate time the Root formula for American Adherence, designed to bring the reservations of the Senate and the conflicting views of the nations already members of the court into harmony. Meanwhile, a determined campaign against ratification is being planned by a group of the Senators largely identified with the old fight against membership in the League of Nations and the Court.

Their views were brought into prominence last week by the result of the Illinois Republican primary election in which Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick defeated Senator Charles S. Deneen for the Senatorial nomination after a campaign based fundamentally upon the World Court issue. Deneen had voted for American adherence when the question was before the Senate several years ago.

D. A. R. NOT RECORDED
Washington, April 15—(UP)—The daughters of the American Revolution have never gone on record against United States adherence to the World Court. Mrs. Lowell Fletcher Hobart, president-general, of the D. A. R., said today in discussing statements that the organization looked coldly upon President Hoover's plea for American participation.

"In an organization of 172,000 women it would be impossible for them ever to agree on any one subject, except their patriotism to the government," Mrs. Hobart declared.

Mrs. Hobart added that the World Court, League of Nations and other subjects of a controversial nature have never come before a Continental Congress of the D. A. R.

Tardieu's Cabinet Wins Another Vote

Paris, April 15—(UP)—The Chamber of Deputies gave Premier Andre Tardieu's Cabinet a vote of confidence today by a majority of 319 to 260.

The vote of confidence was taken on a motion of Deputy Leo Boyssac, a Radical Socialist, demanding an automatic increase in pensions for retired officials.

Tardieu had advanced a compromise plan which was accepted by the Chamber Finance Commission. The Radical Socialists however chose to force a confidence vote.

SOYBEAN GROWERS OF AMERICA WILL MEET AT URBANA

Assn. Will Hold Its Annual Convention At Ill.
University

Picking the leading soybeans state for the event, members of the American Soybean Association will hold the eleventh annual meeting at the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois, September 10, 11, and 12, Dr. W. L. Burlison president of the association and head of the college agronomy department, has announced.

Illinois, which last year grew more than 20 per cent of the country's soybean crop, last entertained the annual meeting of the society in 1921 when the second annual convocation was staged here.

Officers of the association will be in charge of arranging the program and organizing delegations of visitors from their respective sections of the country. The group of officials includes, vice-president, Prof. F. S. Wilkins, of the Iowa State College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts; Ames; secretary-treasurer, J. B. Edmonson, farmer, Clayton, Ind.; and executive committee, Roy Chas. Crother, farmer, Ind.; Dr. W. C. Ehrhard, College of Agriculture, University of Missouri; Harvey Clapp, farmer, Acotink, Va.; and Prof. J. B. Buchanan, Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph.

Industrial utilization of soybeans so as to expand the markets for the crop will be among the problems on which stress will be laid during the annual meeting, according to Pres. Burlison. An attempt is being made to sign up speakers of national importance for this phase of the program.

Soybean production and feeding work on the 1,000-acre experimental farm of the college will be billed as another attraction on the program. There will be tests and comparisons of more than 75 important varieties, studies on date, rate and method of seeding and investigations of inoculation and harvesting to hold the attention of the nation's soybean growers.

Big-scale methods practiced by some of Illinois' leading soybean growers will be the occasion for special tours during the meeting. A trip will be scheduled to the farm of W. E. Riegel, near Tolono, where the visitors will get to inspect 600 acres of soybeans and study various methods of seed preparation and other corn belt practices with the crop. On the John T. Smith farm in the same community the growers will have an opportunity to see various makes of combined harvester threshers in operation.

An effort is being made to get some special exhibit material from the Orient, native home of the soybean, for a special feature of the meeting.

Farming Factors

BY CECIL OWEN

United Press Agricultural Editor
Washington.—(UP)—Information of far reaching importance to agriculture will be made available by the 1930 census now under way in all parts of the United States. Nils Olsen, Chief of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics of the Agriculture Department, said today.

Broadcasting an appeal to farmers to co-operate in supplying the enumerators with all data requested, Olsen stressed that this census will be of especial importance because of the major economic changes that have occurred in American agriculture in the past decade.

"The farm census," Olsen said, "has been organized to yield basic information which will enable federal and state agricultural institutions to aid farmers in formulating plans for improving the economic position of farmers. The census is vital to the research and statistical work of this bureau as it provides basic data from which to estimate farm conditions in inter-census years."

"The 1930 census will make available the exact data regarding acreage and livestock expansion in recent years and regarding the shifts in specific lines of farm production. We shall know precisely the extent to which mechanical power has replaced animal and man power on the farms, and we shall be able to form some judgment as to future developments in this field."

"The farm population is estimated to be the smallest in 30 years," we should like to know how much longer this population of farms will continue. Information that the census will yield will give information as to whether the trend is toward development of large farm holdings and hired hands—corporation farming—or whether despite the reported industrialization of agriculture, the family farm will persist."

For the first time this census will endeavor to obtain information, Olsen said, regarding farm income, and expenditure for operating equipment. Taxes paid and the portion of farm income paid as interest on mortgages will also be obtained as well as the aggregate farm mortgage debt.

"Data covering the dairy industry," Olsen added, "will be especially valuable in view of the present uncertain position of that industry. We shall have exact figures on the number of cows milked and the quantity of milk produced in 1929. The schedules will show, too, the number of cows milked which are of beef or dual purpose breeding; quantity and value of milk, cream, butterfat and butter sold, together with the daily production of milk."

In addition, the census will provide complete information covering all phases of the poultry and livestock industries. More information than ever before available about fruits will also be compiled. While the number of questions asked farmers this year is the same as those of earlier census years, the nature of the questions this time are expected to yield more valuable information.

Increasing competition in foreign markets from foreign producing countries where the output of oranges and grapefruit is being stimulated by the steadily growing world demand is faced by the American citrus fruit industry, the Agriculture Department reported today after a world survey.

The survey disclosed an increasing production of oranges and grapefruit, with recent new plantings and large non-bearing acreages in a number of countries pointing to continued future expansion. An upward trend in consumption of both oranges and grapefruit was also noted.

Production and export of oranges in the southern hemisphere, especially from the Union of South Africa and Brazil is regarded by the department as particularly significant for California producers, as it indicates increasing competition in European markets.

Farm Program Of Broadcasting For Coming Week

The first of a series of periodical reviews of the insect pest situation with recommendations for control of important crop and other insects will be given in the Department of Agriculture period of the National Farm and Home Hour in Monday, April 21. Dr. W. H. Larrimer of the Bureau of Entomology will give directions for grasshopper control in the first of this new series of Farm and Home Hour talks.

Other feature talks of the week include a discussion of crop insurance by Dr. V. N. Valgreen, economist, and of the disposition of hold-over vegetable stocks from 1929 crops by Wells A. Sherman, in charge of fruit and vegetable marketing division, Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

The Farm Board will offer in its program on Friday, April 25, explanations of the important recent developments in the national agricultural marketing program.

The complete program of Department of Agriculture and Farm Board talks for the week follows:

Monday, April 27—"April Hog Markets," C. V. Whallin, in charge, livestock division, Bureau of Agricultural Economics; "Grasshopper Control," Dr. W. H. Larrimer, in charge, division of cereal and forage insects, Bureau of Entomology.

Tuesday, April 22—"The Garden Calendar," W. R. Beattie, horticulturist, Bureau of Plant Industry; "What About Crop Insurance?" Dr. V. N. Valgreen, Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

Thursday, April 24—"The Farm Business Library," M. S. Eisenhower.

Amazed! Way Tanlac Relieves Stomach Troubles

For years the remarkable results obtained from Tanlac in the treatment of general rundown conditions have amazed its users, but most surprising of all is the quick relief this remarkable medicine gives in cases of "rheumatism" and stomach ills that yield to nothing else.

Men and women who thought themselves beyond human aid, who suffered for years with pains from stomach and bowel troubles, neuritis, chronic headaches, dizziness, sleeplessness, constipation, who saw themselves daily going down into a sickly early old age have through the amazing stimulating and cleansing action of this REAL MEDICINE, Tanlac, found themselves once more in the possession of a strong healthy stomach and a body free from pain. One user says, "I suffered tortures from muscular rheumatism but after taking Tanlac for a couple of weeks I was over the rheumatism, my kidneys acting fine, my digestion in apple order." GALVESTON READY TO MOVE RECORD WHEAT CROP TO SHIPS

Galveston, Tex.—(UP)—This port is getting ready to handle the 1930 wheat crop that will pour in from Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska, Missouri and from Northwestern spring wheat states as far off as Wyoming and Montana.

Not many years ago the handling of the wheat crop was a comparatively simple thing. Then the crop moved over a six months period. Under modern harvesting methods it moves in six weeks. And it is many times bigger in volume than the old crop that moved in six months.

This huge movement into Galveston of 32,000,000 bushels of grain and 1,000,000 barrels of flour last year will be under way in June. More than two thirds of Galveston's total population of 63,000 people are directly interested in the shipping and its allied activities. There the largest port elevator in America has been erected to await the 1930 crop by the Galveston Wharf company. It has a capacity of 6,000,000 bushels. Five hundred cars a day can be handled. Twelve dock workers to a car are used. Eighty three electric motors with 4150 horsepower capacity aid in the movement. They are handled by remote control through three substations.

Eleven 2500-bushel hopper scales will weigh the incoming crop; heat driers will insure its good condition pending export from thermometer controlled bins. This export will be from six miles of waterfront along which 32 piers receive the vessels of 60 steamship companies. There is berth space for 100 vessels.

Thirty shipside warehouses await the shipments. They have inside floor space of more than 4,000,000 square feet and apron space of 600,000 square feet more. A complete railroad system works among the elevators and warehouses with 51 miles of track. In it 1100 cars can be stored. Fifty six loaded cars can be spotted for unloading at the same time. There the grain will flow in belt conveyors from 16 unloading piers.

It's a big job moving the wheat crop but Galveston says it can be done.

Big Fund to Fight Wild Animal Pests Sought From U. S.

By FRANK I. WELLER
(Associated Press Farm Editor)

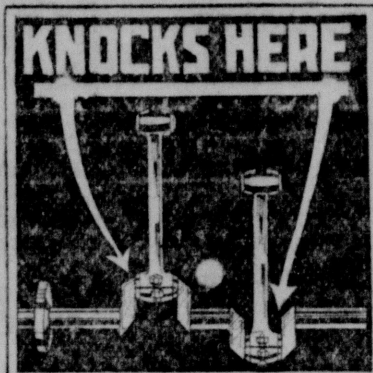

Washington.—(AP)—Plans for a 10-year war on predatory animals are being backed by the department of agriculture.

Secretary Hyde is lining up all his influence behind a bill to appropriate $13,787,000 for a campaign against coyotes, wolves, mountain lions, bobcats and other pests, by Representative Scott Leavitt of Montana.

Figures from the various bureaus involved indicate to the secretary that stock killing animals cause an annual loss of from $20,000,000 to $30,000,000 to the livestock industry. Their inroads on game animals and game and insectivorous birds, he says, have an important bearing on the conservation of game.

The fund would make available $782,300 yearly for the destruction of stock killing animals, and $596,200 for rodents and other small injurious animals. Funds now available from current appropriations amount to $346,867 for the former and $219,167 for control of the latter. It is believed, the secretary says.

VISIBLE GRAIN SUPPLY
New York, April 15.—(AP)—The visible supply of American grain shows the following changes, in bushels: wheat decreased 3,031,000; corn increased 44,000; oats decreased 421,000; rye 55,000; barley decreased 196,000.

We are equipped and able (through long experience) to restore perfect bearing surfaces to the crankshaft with "flat or ovalized" bearing surfaces—the cause of those motor knocks.

Th Rotary Hoe does a perfect job of blind cultivation, as the plants come through, and after they are up. It is the only device that will hoe right in around plants, without harming them. It is the implement for cultivation of solid soybean plantings, and it simply can't be beat for spring wheat. As a mulcher, weed killer, and cultivator for crops such as mint, beets, cotton, tobacco, garden truck, etc., it has no equal.

The Farm Population Still Is Dwindling But Not So Rapidly

BY CECIL OWEN

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Washington, April 15.—(UP)—Gradual slackening in the trend from farm to city with indications that the population is becoming stabilized were noted in studies made public by the Agriculture Department.

Farm population still is dwindling, though more slowly. It is estimated there are 27,220,000 persons on farms, or less than at any time within 20 years.

Farm population has decreased by 5,000,000 since 1910. The movement from farm to city has been gradually diminishing in volume, however, for some years until in 1929 it included 1,876,000 persons compared with more than 2,000,000 in earlier years.

Movement of farm families to cities in the past 20 years, it was pointed out, has established many ties and associations between rural and urban families that have gone far to create a homogeneous population. The 12,000,000 farm-bred persons living in cities were said to have linked practically every farm home at some time or other with some city family.

Study of the yearly change in farm population reveals a definite relationship between the population drift and the condition of agriculture and business. Data covering the past seven years shows that an improvement in farm income has always been accompanied by a smaller movement of population from farms.

Because of unemployment conditions now prevailing in cities there is a plentiful supply of farm labor and farm wages are lower than in eight years. They range from $23.30 with board in the south Atlantic states to $53.94 in the far west.

A dozen of eggs was 33 cents for all flocks, 37 cents for the best one-third and 30 cents for the poorest one-third.

The average number of hens in each of the 216 flocks was 184, a figure which varied but little in the case of the best and the poorest one-third of the group. Owners of the better flocks did, however, weed out their birds more carefully. The percentage of hens culled was 47.8 per cent in the case of the best one-third of the flocks, 44.7 per cent in the case of the 216 flocks and 43.3 per cent in the case of the poorest one-third.

The investment varied little between the three groups, being $4.83 for the best one-third and $1.26 for the poorest one-third.

The average return for each hour of labor was 82 cents for all 216 flocks, $1.53 for the best one-third and 30 cents for the poorest one-third.

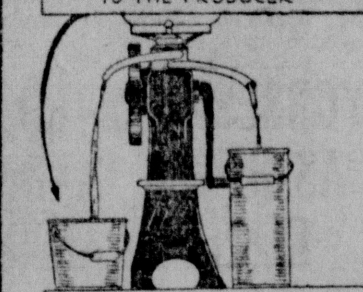

One clue to the wide difference in earning power of the different flocks was found in the number of eggs laid by each hen and the selling price of the eggs. The average for the whole group was 126 eggs a hen, as compared to 136 for the best one-third of the flocks and 112 for the poorest one-third. The average selling price

BUTTERFAT LOSSES TWICE AS HIGH WHEN SEPARATOR IS WASHED ONLY ONCE A DAY AND CREAM TEST LESS UNIFORM

ONE way of saving undue losses of butterfat in skimming is to wash the separator each time it is used, says the Blue Valley Creamery Institute. Unless this is done, the result is not only inefficient skimming, but cream of poorer quality.

Separators washed only once a day lost much more butterfat in the skimming than those washed after each separation, in a survey by the cow tester of the Franklin County (Iowa) cow testing association. He found that eleven of fourteen separators lost twice as much butterfat in the morning as in the evening when the separators were washed in the evening only. In some instances, the loss was three times as great. In each case, the separator was washed only after the morning separation.

The reason for this loss lies in the collection of small particles of curd and of slime sediment in the crevices of the unwashed separator bowl. This cuts down the centrifugal force of the machine and interferes with the free flow of the milk and cream. This also causes the cream test to vary from one separation to another and may throw the separator out of balance, thus further decreasing its skimming efficiency.

Another important reason why it pays to wash the separator after each separation is to produce cream of highest quality. Cream that is run through an unclean separator is sure to be contaminated with undesirable flavors and odors and with bacteria which cause cream to sour rapidly at ordinary temperatures. However, cream that is run through a clean separator does not pick up these off flavors and odors and souring bacteria, and, therefore, stays sweet for a long time. This higher quality cream makes better butter and the creamery pays more for it than it does for cream of lower quality.

To clean the separator parts thoroughly, they should be first washed in lukewarm water containing a washing powder. Soap does not do a good job of washing because it is much harder to rinse off. A very good washing solution may be made by dissolving about a level tablespoonful of washing powder in a gallon of water that is as hot as the hands can bear. The solution should be strong enough to remove all grease from the separator parts. A brush should always be used, instead of a wash rag. Then all the parts should be plunged in or scalded thoroughly with boiling water and hung up to dry, preferably in the open air. The rubber ring that is a part of the bowl should be washed in warm water only and laid on the table so it will not stretch. It should not be stretched in wiping because pulling on it may make the ring larger.

The poor flocks used just as much feed as the good ones. Total feed costs for each hen averaged $2.32 a hen for the 216 flocks, $2.13 a hen for the best one-third and $2.33 a hen for the poorest one-third.

WHAT A DIFFERENCE 90 DAYS MAKE!

TODAY A TODDLING CHICK... in 90 days a proud pullet about to lay. There's something to think about! Tiny bones and little muscles have grown several times in size... a delicate fuzz has sprouted into hundreds of feathers... a chick weighing grams has grown into a pullet weighing pounds... all in 90 short days!

A wonderful change... and only one thing can do it... good feed! This year consider Purina Startena Chow (mash) and Purina Chick Chow (scratch) or All-Mash Startena Chow for the first six weeks... and then Purina Growena and Purina Intermediate Hen Chow until your pullets are laying at 16 weeks.

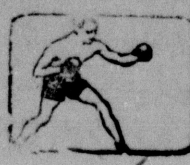

Put these Chows before your chicks. You will see pullets that are built right... pullets that will lay eggs aplenty in fall and winter when eggs are always worth good money.

BOWLING NEWS

BY ED WORLEY

The city league came to a close in both divisions this week. In the A league, the postponed game between the Implements and Killians Giants of Sterling resulted in the latter winning all three contests by a safe majority, this giving them second place. Moxie of the Sterling club, who detests low scores, rolled 216 for high single game, and his teammate V. Bauer cracked up enough wood to tally 584 for series honors.

In the B league which also came to a close this week, the Underworlds succeeded in getting two out of three from Shawgers crew, although they did not necessarily need them to clinch last place in standings. F. E. Miller displayed unusually fine form to roll 222 for high single game. H. Schertner nosed him out by 1 pin however for series honors with 536.

The Maple Knockers of Sterling took all three games from Covert's Coffee Shop. However, the last game proved to be anybody's game, until the last ball was thrown, the two teams rolling 827 a piece.

The final standings of the teams and all high individuals scores and averages are listed as follows:

An intensely interesting meeting was held last evening at the Past-time Alley's, the result being a complete change in the recently proposed doubles tournament. A league bowlers have been paired according to averages, with B league bowlers, there being only a slight variation in any of the teams. There will be 16 sets of doubles, 32 bowlers in all. Sixteen will roll on Wednesday and 16 on Thursday nights. Each bowler will pay $1 entry fee, and the usual bowling fee for each night they bowl. The tournament lasts five weeks only and there will be 8 prizes in all. Total pins will decide the winners. The schedule as published tonight will be identically the same the entire five weeks of bowling.

He Smiles at Gambler's Suit

While he awaits a supreme court decision, Gene Tunney grins, even though the decision may cost him several hundred thousand dollars. The cameraman photographed the retired heavyweight champion with a smile on his face as he boarded the S. S. Leviathan at Boston for the trip to New York. The supreme court decision in the suit brought by Max (Boo Boo) Hoff, Philadelphia gambler, is expected to be announced late this month.

the past. The Boston Red Sox, sated for last place in the advance dope, gained the honor of leading the league for at least one day by beating Washington 4-3, at the National Capital yesterday as President Hoover, government officials and 20,000 fans looked on.

The Red Sox's triumph, however, was not enough to make the experts alter their forecasts that the Philadelphia Athletics again would win the American League title and battle the Chicago Cubs, National League champions, in the world's series next fall.

Granted fair weather, a quarter of million spectators were expected to attend the eight games on today's schedule. In the American League the New York Yankees were to open against the Athletics at Philadelphia; St. Louis at Detroit, Cleveland at Chicago, and Washington at Boston. In the National League the Cubs were to play at St. Louis, Boston at New York, Pittsburgh at Cincinnati, and Philadelphia at Brooklyn.

In the American League the Athletics expect to find their greatest opposition in the Yankees with Cleveland and Detroit also to be feared. The Yankees still have Babe Ruth, at $80,000 a year, but must experiment with two rookies, Chapman at third base and Cookie in left field where Bob Meusel used to roam.

In the National League the fight seems to lie among the Cubs, Pittsburgh Pirates and New York Giants. The Pirates, however, have lost Burleigh Grimes and are experiencing their usual hard luck with injuries and sickness while the Giants have a big question mark at second base.

Three "dark horses" add the spice of uncertainty to the major league races. In the American the Chicago White Sox, under Donie Bush's leadership, have shown great strength this spring and may make it uncomfortable for clubs rated above them. In the National the Brooklyn Dodgers and Philadelphia Nationals have rounded up so much batting strength that they may be able to blast themselves into the first division. Brooklyn, in addition, will have Glenn Wright as an infield spark plug and an effective pitching staff headed by Dazzy Vance and Bill Clark.

Eight clubs will have new managers and all of them have made changes of one sort or another since the close of the 1929 campaign.

SIMMONS A HOLD OUT
Philadelphia, April 15—(AP)—Al Simmons, left field ace of the Athletics, stood revealed today as a sure-enough holdout, and Manager Mack, announcing that he was unable to come to salary terms with the Milwaukee mauler, ordered Spencer Harris, obtained from Detroit, in the lineup in the opening game with the Yankees.

Mack announced the Simmons status late yesterday after a final conference with the player. He intimated also Simmons would not be sold or traded and that the club would not recede from its stand.

So far as two clubs in the American League are concerned, the official opening already was a thing of Baseball writers who interviewed Simmons quoted him as saying that the salary difference is so great as to be "laughable," and that he expected to leave for his home in Milwaukee in a few days.

Neither Mack nor Simmons would state the salary offered or demanded but Simmons, according to newspaper men, said that a guess of $35,000 was "very close" to the sum he asked for this year.

This is the first time Simmons has been a holdout and the first time in many years the Athletics have had a player unsigned on opening day. In his six years with the A's Simmons has been a consistent hitter and a strong defensive player.

The absence of Simmons caused Mack to shift his batting order. Harris will bat second and Haas will draw Simmons' former fourth place position.

RUTH SETS HIS GOAL

New York, April 15—(AP)—If Babe Ruth hits less than fifty home runs this season he will be tempted not to count them. Just before he left for Philadelphia for the opening game against the Athletics the Yankee slugger said his minimum goal was an even 50 round trip clouts. "Maybe more if they pitch to me," he added.

Charles F. Scott, former member of Congress and editor of the Iola, Kan.,
Daily register, says:

"Competition now is between towns rather than between individuals.
With an automobile in every home and good roads in every direction, the man on the farm does not say to his family as they get ready for the regular weekly trade trip, 'Let's go to the Brown store or the Green store or the Blue store.' He says, 'Let's go to the Square Town or Whoop City or Welcome Center.'"

"And whether they go to the one or the other of these towns will depend very largely upon the impression the family has received through the local newspapers. If the newspaper from one of these towns comes to them every day filled with attractive advertisements in every line of merchandise, and if editorially and in its local department the newspaper is a live wire, creating the impression that something is always going on in that town, there is where the family is going."

"On the other hand, if it is conceivable that a newspaper should go out from any given town day after day without any advertisements at all for a period of six months, grass would be growing in the streets."

The loss to the world each year by rusting is said to be more than $2-500,000,000.

let hole in his forehead revealing the nature of his death, the partially decomposed body of Andrew Lucas, 28, Harber... was found in a marshy swamp near here yesterday. Lucas had been missing from home for six weeks and when found physicians declared he had been dead for sevcas' clothing but there was no gun, authorities were to search the field in which they found his body is an effort to find the weapon with which they believe Lucas may have killed
